

ANOTHER FRIEND SONG

Larry Jon Wilson

The phone rang late on Tuesday last – and a voice said, “I’m ashamed to ask – but I’m down and I remembered that I can turn to you – years ago we made a pledge – and Vowed that we would share our legends,
I’ve been up in the mountain light since then and down again,
I’ve been through joy and I’ve been through hell,
And I heard that you’ve been doin’ well.
I mostly called to say how proud I am to be your friend”.

I said “I can’t find the words to say
How glad I am you called today
To talk awhile and let me know just how you’ve been
And thank you very much for giving me the chance
To lend a hand, my friend”.

He said, “I was told that hearts were cold in San Francisco,
But she opened up and curled me to her bosom like a child
I’ve been gone a year today and I’m still trying to find a way,
To get back and make this jaded life seem more worthwhile”.

I said, “Hop the Delta 509 – you’ve go a home here anytime
And I’ll be glad to have you pass this way again,
And thank you very much for giving me –
This chance to lend a hand, my friend”.

close:

“Thank you very much for giving me this chance to Lend a hand, my friend”.
