

HEARTLAND

Bob Dylan / Willie Nelson

There's a home place under fire tonight in the heartland
And the bankers are taking my home and my land from me.
There's a big empty hole in my chest now where my heart was
And a hole in the sky now where God used to be.

chorus:

'Cause my American dream fell apart at the seams
Tell me what it means, tell me what it means.

There's a home place under fire tonight in the heartland
And it's got well where the water's so bitter nobody can drink
An' I ain't no way to get high and my mouth is so dry now I can't spit
Can't you all see that I'm dyin', why ain't you cryin' for me?

'Cause my American dream fell apart at the seams
Tell me what it means, Tell me what it means

My American dream fell apart at the seams
Tell me what it means, Tell me what it means

There's a home place under fire tonight in the heartland
The auctioneer is sellin' my heart and my soul away.
And there's a young boy layin' his head down tonight in the heartland
He will wake up a man with some land and a loan he can't pay.

His American dream will fall apart at the seams
Tell me what it means, tell me what it means

My American dream fell apart at the seams
Tell me what it means, tell me what it means.
