

YOU MEAN THE WORLD TO ME

Larry Jon Wilson

You've been gone for quite some time now and
You've found a man that treats you good
I've been trying to get there somehow
Because I told the kids I would
But part time work's been hard to find
I had to stop and build some time
On the way for vagrancy
Hope the kids ain't ashamed of me
(I can still) tell you truthfully
Ya'all mean the world to me

(Yes) I still take a drink or two
But only with a chosen few
My health's o.k. and I wish you well
I miss my kids – but, what the hell?
I know they're better off without me
(And) I know you say some good about me
I know I played it “hit-or-miss“
(And) we've seen better times than this
But I can tell you truthfully
You mean the world to me

I'll be there soon – try to seem glad
'Cause all-in-all things ain't too bad, (and)
I won't say again I need you
I won't say again I love you
But I can tell you from the heart of me
You mean the world to me
But I can tell you from the heart of me
You mean the world to me
